CALENDAR

THIS MONTH: MARCH

Bobby Healy and Laura Montgomery from the facilities department have organized two on-campus collection sites for Vision/Habitat, a non-profit organization that collects old eye glasses for people in developing countries. Collection will take place during the entire month of March. Collection boxes are located in the Tower Cafeteria and at Longwood Security Desk. All collected glasses will be shipped to Vision/Habitat in Georgia.

THIS WEEK:

MONDAY, MARCH 26th:

"Fear of Fat", a video in which eating-disordered women discuss their conditions and society's influence upon their body images, will be shown at 6:30pm in the Smith Hall Lounge. A discussion, led by Liz Tassinari, R.N., of Health Services, and Joyce Aronson, of Counseling Services, will follow. All are welcome. Call ext. 364 for more info.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28th:

Dr. Chukwuanugo S. Okeke of Nigeria, an artist and scholar in African textile traditions, will give a slide presentation in room 209, Longwood, at 9:30am. Open to all. Dr. Okeke is currently on the staff of the National Center of Afro-American Artists and is a visiting scholar at the Peabody Museum, Harvard University.

Movies At Midday, brought to you by Counseling Services, will be held at 12:15pm in the Life Gallery in the Student Life Building. Today's feature will be "Night Mother", with Anne Bancroft and Sissy Spacek. Everyone is welcome; bring your lunch.

Dutch sculptor and installation artist, Ton Zwerver will show slides of his work and discuss his current project in Boston, called "Living Room Sculpture". Zwerver works in the homes of individuals in their absence, creating temporary sculptural installations from furniture and objects present on the site. In the Trustees Room, 11th floor, Tower at 5:30pm.

THURSDAY, MARCH 29th:
NO SCHOOL, professional day.

"Conrack" presented on video in the Arnhem Resource Room at 5:30pm. Free popcorn, bring your friends.

UPCOMING:

EVENTWORKS 1990: Beginning April 1st in the Thompson Gallery and ending April 30th with John Waters at Longwood Theater. See next week's CALENDAR.

April 5th: is the deadline to SUBMIT YOUR VIDEOS!! For the All School Video Show, which will take place on April 10th, at 8pm in the Longwood Theater with BIG SCREEN projection. Submissions should be made to the Video Lab, call ext. 218 for more info.

April 9-13th: Carry Your Own Garbage Week. Students at campuses around New England will carry their garbage in two clear plastic bags, one for recyclables, one for non-recyclables, for as many days that week as possible, to draw attention to the solid waste crisis and encourage campuses to adopt comprehensive recycling programs. Wednesday, April 11th, is the focus day for garbage carrying.

FASHION DESIGNS & STUDENTS "IN THE NEWS"

MassArt Fashion Designs (Fantasy) will be shown on the "Good Day Show" on April 26th. In addition, Saks Fifth Avenue will be presenting MassArt Fashion Designs in the Dartmouth St. MBTA station on April 28th. Other participants in the MBTA project will be from Berklee School of Music and Emerson College.

ONCE AGAIN, OUR PLANET "IN THE NEWS"

The next meeting for Earth Day planning will be: Thursday, April 5th at 12:00noon in the Resource Library in Academic Affairs (2nd floor, Student Life Building.) Some events being planned are: an exhibit to be held in the Tower Lobby, which is still soliciting student artwork, the Eventworks reading to be held on Earth Day 1990 on the Longwood lawn, tables to be set up in the cafeteria with lots of info. and copies of "Shopping for a Better World" at 1/2 price ($2.50), a practical guide to what you can do. People with strong visual ideas for Earth Day, 1990 please attend this important meeting!

NOMINATIONS FOR HONORARY DEGREE CANDIDATES 1991:

In order to secure the best possible candidates for Commencement 1991, it is important that the process begin as early as possible. All members of the MassArt community have an opportunity to nominate candidates for an Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts Degree. All nominations should be submitted to the Vice President of Student Affairs, Paul McCaffrey. The nominations will then be reviewed and evaluated by the President and Administrative Council for submission to the Trustees at their June meeting. If possible, nominations should include a detailed vitae. Nominations are due to Paul McCaffrey by April 3rd.

ATTENTION FRESHMEN:

It is essential that all freshmen declare their majors no later than this Tuesday, MARCH 27TH. This is done easily by checking off a form in the Registrar's office (6th floor, Tower). Failure to do this by the above date may jeopardize your standing in the major.

CAREER RESOURCES:

Summer jobs are coming in.

Please begin to check summer job books.

LIBRARY NEWS: BARCODING:

In order to borrow materials from these libraries, your ID must be barcoded: Emerson College, Wentworth Institute, New England Conservatory, and Wheelock College. Although the Godine Library is not set up for a full fledged barcoding system, they will be happy to barcode on TUESDAYS, FROM 11AM-12NOON, and THURSDAYS, FROM 1-2PM. See Margot Isabelle for more info.

COUNSELING SERVICES:

are available at no cost to all MassArt students. Gail Hinand, Joyce Aronson and Sheri Slusky are available daily for assessment, consultation, counseling, or referral, if appropriate. To make an appointment stop by the offices on the second floor of the Student Life Building, daily at 2:30pm for the drop-in time, or call ext. 364.

Art School Associates Trust Fund Annual Awards

The Board of Directors of Art School Associates, Inc., has voted to allocate ten (10) $100.00 scholarship awards, two (2) book awards and added monies to adjust some of the college awards to a more desirable level for the scholarship activities this academic year. The Board also voted to fund a one year tuition scholarship for a student entering the College in the fall. It is a merit scholarship to assist the attracting of minority students to the institution.

The Board of Directors of Art School Associates Trust Fund has voted to allocate twenty (20) $1,000.00 scholarship awards for this academic year. Two (2) tuition scholarship awards for two (2) students entering the College in the fall of 1991 have also been established, to assist the attracting of minority student to the College.

All of these awards are given for merit, excellence of artistic expression, and intellectual achievement. The faculty of the College by departments will be selecting the recipients of these awards as we move towards the convocation and graduation ceremonies. The Boards of the two awarding committees with the faculty and the students success in their activities.
